

Summer Reading Tips

- * Create a family reading time where everyone has his or her own book
- * Set aside a time each day for reading
- * Read aloud to your child, no matter what age they are
- * Visit your local library or bookstore to discover new titles
- * Read everything—books, magazines, brochures, online, comics!
- * Make reading an event—head to the library and then to a favorite place to read and snack

Online reading suggestions

PebbleGo: <http://pebblego.com> user=isbpg, password=isbpg

Capstone Reading: <http://mycapstonelibrary.com> user=isb, password=isb

Tumblebooks: <http://tumblebooks.com> user=isbtumble, password=12345678

Dogo News: <http://dogonews.com>

Zooborns: <http://zooborns.com>

Wonderopolis: <http://wonderopolis.org/>

We Give Books: <http://wegivebooks.org> user=isbes, password=isbes

Destiny Quest (Keeping track of reading): <http://eshub.isb.ac.th>

Ms. Tara's Book Recommendation Blog: <http://mstara.edublogs.org>

Dear 5th Grade Parents and Students,

How exciting that we have this big chunk of time during the summer to read what we love! I have put together some recommended titles that are fabulous, as well as some new titles that I have been hearing good things about and can't wait to read myself this summer. Enjoy your vacation, and I will truly miss you as you being middle school--Ms. Tara ☺

1. 39 Clues series by various authors
2. The Search for Wondla by Tony DiTerlittzi*
3. Umbrella Summer by Lisa Graff
4. Powerless by Matthew Cody
5. Big Nate Out Loud by Lincoln Peirce
6. Out of My Mind by Sharon Draper
7. Paint the Wind by Pam Munoz Ryan*
8. Where the Mountain Meets the Moon by Grace Lin
9. Extra Credit by Andrew Clements
10. Savvy by Ingrid Law
11. The Red Pyramid by Rick Riordan
12. The Call (Magnificent 12) by Michael Grant
13. The Strange Case of Origami Yoda by Tom Angleberger

*New to me, but I can't wait to read them!