

Summer Reading Tips

- * Create a family reading time where everyone has his or her own book
- * Set aside a time each day for reading
- * Read aloud to your child, no matter what age they are
- * Visit your local library or bookstore to discover new titles
- * Read everything—books, magazines, brochures, online, comics!
- * Make reading an event—head to the library and then to a favorite place to read and snack

Online reading suggestions

PebbleGo: <http://pebblego.com> user=isbpg, password=isbpg

Capstone Reading: <http://mycapstonelibrary.com> user=isb, password=isb

Tumblebooks: <http://tumblebooks.com> user=isbtumble, password=12345678

Dogo News: <http://dogonews.com>

Zooborns: <http://zooborns.com>

Wonderopolis: <http://wonderopolis.org/>

We Give Books: <http://wegivebooks.org> user=isbes, password=isbes

Destiny Quest (Keeping track of reading): <http://eshub.isb.ac.th>

Ms. Tara's Book Recommendation Blog: <http://mstara.edublogs.org>

Dear 2nd Grade Parents and Students,

How exciting that we have this big chunk of time during the summer to read what we love! I have put together some recommended titles that are fabulous, as well as some new titles that I have been hearing good things about and can't wait to read myself this summer. Enjoy your vacation, and I look forward to seeing you in August. --Ms. Tara ☺

1. Truly Winnie series by Jennifer Jacobson
2. Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane by Kate DiCamillo (amazing family read)
3. Beastquest series by Adam Blade
4. Frankie Pickle series by Eric Wight*
5. Babymouse series by Jennifer & Matthew Holm
6. Dear Whiskers by Ann Whitehead Nagda
7. Ook and Gluk by Dav Pilkey
8. Marty McGuire by Kate Messner*
9. Ivy and Bean series by Annie Barrows
10. Roscoe Riley Rules series by Katherine Applegate
11. Clementine series by Sara Pennypacker
12. Bad Kitty Takes a Bath by Nick Bruel
13. Lulu and the Brontosaurus by Judith Viorst

*New to me, but I can't wait to read them!